Maine Delegation Calls For Chinese Paper Subsidy Probe

07/28/2010 02:16 PM ET

President Obama asked to investigate unfair Chinese paper industry practices.

All four members of Maine's Congressional Delegation are asking President Barack Obama to conduct an in-depth examination of China's alleged subsidization of its domestic paper industry.

Senator Olympia Snowe, who led the letter with Ron Wyden (D-OR) in the Senate, and Congressman Michaud, who led the letter with Thaddeus McCotter (R-MI) in the House, were joined by over 100 lawmakers from 30 states.

The letter sent to President Obama strongly urges the administration to examine the practices of the Chinese government and to take action to remedy the situation.
